

JOAN MANGUM

2421

The League for Children, an auxiliary group of Children's Bureau, held a meeting for all of its members at the Regency Club and enjoyed an etiquette presentation by Paul Dreher, assistant director of catering at the Beverly Hilton... Very informative.

The League for Children is one of Children's Bureau's longest-standing auxiliary groups founded by Lois Linkletter and the late Millie O'Green. The auxiliary has raised nearly $2.8 million since it was formed. Children's Bureau is a 104-year-old leader in the prevention and treatment of child abuse and neglect.
