The Latest Wedding Details!

George & Charlotte
The royal siblings are expected to be a page boy and bridesmaid—but the Palace confirmed that baby Louis will not attend.

The Guest List
Princess Diana's brother Charles, 9th Earl Spencer, will be in attendance, but Prince Philip might miss the wedding while he recovers from hip surgery.

The Carriage
The newlyweds will ride through the streets of Windsor in an Ascot landau from the Royal Mews pulled by Windsor Grey horses.

'MEGHAN LOVES HER DAD... THEY ARE IN A GOOD PLACE NOW
—SOURCE CLOSE TO MEGHAN

tabloid InTouch claiming that their dad had not received an invitation to the royal wedding and that Meghan had largely shut him out of her life. A source close to the former Suits star refutes Markle Jr.'s claims.

“Meghan loves her dad,” says the insider. “Like any father-daughter relationship, there have been ups and downs over the years. But they are in a good place now.”

Markle Sr. split from Meghan's mother, yoga instructor Doria Ragland, in the early '80s and currently lives a quiet life in Mexico. When Meghan was a budding actress at Immaculate Heart school in L.A., “her dad was such a sweetheart,” says a former classmate. “He did the sets for our plays, which was a huge thing for us, and he would volunteer his time even after Meghan graduated. She was close with her parents. They were affectionate.”

In response to Markle Jr.'s claims that Meghan left their dad in financial ruin after he supported her education and acting career, the insider says, “She's been supportive of him in every way, including financially. She has paid many of her father's bills over the years.”

Although Meghan has no relationship with either Thomas Jr. or half sister Samantha—“They were out of the house by the time she was born,” says the insider—both of her parents will play an important role on her wedding day. “Ms. Markle is delighted to have her parents by her side on this important and happy occasion,” the Palace said in a statement. —ERIN HILL with Aili Nahas, Simon Perry and Elizabeth Leonard

HOW CIARA LOST 50 LBS. AFTER BABY!

Ciara says she's back down to “prebaby-weight territory” after gaining 65 lbs. during her pregnancy with daughter Sienna, who turned 1 on April 28. The pop star, 32, who's married to Seattle Seahawks quarterback Russell Wilson, 29 (she's also mom to son Future Jr., 4, with rapper-ex Future), breast-fed and “trained two to three times a day,” she says. She hit the treadmill and focused on her core after being diagnosed with diastasis recti—a pregnancy-related condition in which the large abdominal muscles separate—following her first pregnancy. She's in no rush to lose the last few pounds: “My husband has been showing me love on my hips. He likes them!” —MELODY CHIU
